

HAD TO TREAT THAW ON RAILROAD TRAIN

Dr. Bailey Found Him
Chattering, With Bulging Eyes.

THREE EXPERTS FOR EACH SIDE

Drs. Wagner and Evans Tell Their Examinations of Thaw in the Tombs and of His Strange Characteristics.
Foreign Witnesses
on To-Day.

NEW YORK, January 23.—When the early adjournment of the Thaw trial was taken to-day in order to enable the attorneys for the defense to prepare their long hypothetical questions covering all the evidence in the case, there seemed no longer any doubt that next week will bring the second hearing to a close.

Justice Dwyer has decided to limit the calls for three expert witnesses and two of the defense's trio were heard to-day as to the facts of the mental and physical examinations that made of Harry Thaw in the Tomb following his arrest. No experts for the state have appeared, and Jerome has not indicated any witnesses in which he will combat the testimony of the defense. All the doctors who

Mr. Jerome turned the tables yesterday on Mrs. William Thaw by reading to the jury the affidavit she made a year ago to the lunacy commission which was testing her son's condition of mind so the defense may show a seeming reversal by having the State's allies admit upon the stand that she made affidavits a year ago in which she expressed the opinion that Harry paranoia, and had been a victim of that mental malady for many years. Justice Dowling held a conference with all of the attorneys interested in the case before announcing his decision to limit the amount of expert testimony. Last year the defense offered six experts to answer the hypothetical question, against nine for the district attorney. The defense should conclude

Was Stanford White's Guest.
Dr. Charles G. Wagner, of Binghamton, N. Y., and Dr. Britton D. Evans, of Morris Plains, N. J., both superintendents of State Institutions for the Insane, were on the stand to-day. In detailing their conversation with Thomas in the Tombs, they brought out most clearly two points which were glossed over in the first trial.

to the effect that Thaw had told them that in 1900 or 1901 he had been a guest of Stanford White at a dinner party in the Madison Square Garden tower. He had left early, and had been accused of breaking up the party. Some of the guests did not eat much, Thaw declared, and the young woman who sat next to him declared the food was bad.

first time he saw Evelyn Nesbit was in 1901 in front of a theatre. "A pure looking girl," he described her. When he asked who she was, he was told the name was Nesbit, and that she was a friend of Stanford White. They managed afterwards to meet the girl at an after-theatre supper in company with several other chorus people.

to be heard for the defense will arrive to-morrow morning on the steamship Adriatic, which is expected to dock at 9 A. M. The court session begins at 10 o'clock, and every effort will be made to have them there at that time, Mr. Littleton is anxious that their evidence shall be in before he puts his hypothetical question. Besides Dr.

Treated Thaw on Train.
Dr. Charles L. Bailey, of Albany, N. Y., was called as the first witness to-day. Dr. Bailey attended Thaw on a New York Central Railway train between Hudson and Albany in April.

When I was called in to see him said the witness, "Thaw was chattering something like 'shasta, shasta, shasta' the Pennsylvania runs into the New York Central. He kept on repeating this for some time. His eyes were bulging, and he appeared unsteady." He gave him a hypodermic or morphine with the assistance of the porter. W. Thaw say the syringe he said: "Tal-

On cross-examination Dr. Bailey said Thaw did not respond to his interrogations, but rambled on incoherently. His pulse was about 90.

to the admissibility of Thaw's statements to Drs. Dagner and Evans. The Tombs following the homicide. Justice Dowling finally held that the statements were admissible as the basis for the expert opinion formed by the alienist.

Manner of Speech Rapid.

Dr. Wagner said Thaw told of his efforts to have Stanford White punished by appealing to Anthony Comstock and District Attorney Jerome. He said he had not intended attacking White, that Providence took the matter in hand, and did it in His own way. Thaw also said he had been followed by a gang of thugs whom White had employed to engage him in a street quarrel and kick him to death.

"Mr. Thaw gave me a history of his life," continued the witness. "He said he never got along very well at school."

and once thought of being a painter. In traveling abroad he had met some pretty fast people, but had never been a dissipated man or much in the company of women. He said he rarely, never drank whiskey alone. He always wanted to talk of the wrongs he saw.

(Continued on Second Page.)

When I was called in to see him said the witness, "Thaw was chattering something like 'shasta, shasta, shasta' the Pennsylvania runs into the New York Central. He kept on repeating this for some time. His eyes were bulging, and he appeared unsteady." He gave him a hypodermic or morphine with the assistance of the porter. W. Thaw say the syringe he said: "Tal-

On cross-examination Dr. Bailey said Thaw did not respond to his interrogations, but rambled on incoherently. His pulse was about 90.

to the admissibility of Thaw's statements to Drs. Dagner and Evans. The Tombs following the homicide. Justice Dowling finally held that the statements were admissible as the basis for the expert opinion formed by the alienist.

Manner of Speech Rapid.

Dr. Wagner said Thaw told of his efforts to have Stanford White punished by appealing to Anthony Comstock and District Attorney Jerome. He said he had not intended attacking White, that Providence took the matter in hand, and did it in His own way. Thaw also said he had been followed by a gang of thugs whom White had employed to engage him in a street quarrel and kick him to death.

"Mr. Thaw gave me a history of his life," continued the witness. "He said he never got along very well at school."

and once thought of being a painter. In traveling abroad he had met some pretty fast people, but had never been a dissipated man or much in the company of women. He said he rarely, never drank whiskey alone. He always wanted to talk of the wrongs he saw.

(Continued on Second Page.)

When I was called in to see him said the witness, "Thaw was chattering something like 'shasta, shasta, shasta' the Pennsylvania runs into the New York Central. He kept on repeating this for some time. His eyes were bulging, and he appeared unsteady." He gave him a hypodermic or morphine with the assistance of the porter. W. Thaw say the syringe he said: "Tal-

On cross-examination Dr. Bailey said Thaw did not respond to his interrogations, but rambled on incoherently. His pulse was about 90.

to the admissibility of Thaw's statements to Drs. Dagner and Evans. The Tombs following the homicide. Justice Dowling finally held that the statements were admissible as the basis for the expert opinion formed by the alienist.

Manner of Speech Rapid.

Dr. Wagner said Thaw told of his efforts to have Stanford White punished by appealing to Anthony Comstock and District Attorney Jerome. He said he had not intended attacking White, that Providence took the matter in hand, and did it in His own way. Thaw also said he had been followed by a gang of thugs whom White had employed to engage him in a street quarrel and kick him to death.

"Mr. Thaw gave me a history of his life," continued the witness. "He said he never got along very well at school."

and once thought of being a painter. In traveling abroad he had met some pretty fast people, but had never been a dissipated man or much in the company of women. He said he rarely, never drank whiskey alone. He always wanted to talk of the wrongs he saw.

(Continued on Second Page.)

When I was called in to see him said the witness, "Thaw was chattering something like 'shasta, shasta, shasta' the Pennsylvania runs into the New York Central. He kept on repeating this for some time. His eyes were bulging, and he appeared unsteady." He gave him a hypodermic or morphine with the assistance of the porter. W. Thaw say the syringe he said: "Tal-away that die stuff.' I was very close to him and could not detect the odor of alcohol.

On cross-examination Dr. Bailey said Thaw did not respond to his interrogations, but rambled on incoherently. His pulse was about 90.

Dr. Charles G. Wagner, of Birmingham, N. Y., succeeded Dr. Bailey as the stand, District-Attorney Jerome A. Mr. Littleton had a long argument to the admissibility of Thaw's statements to Drs. Dagner and Evans. The Tombs following the homicide. Justice Dowling finally held that the statements were admissible as the basis for the expert opinion formed by the alienist.

Manner of Speech Rapid.

Dr. Wagner said Thaw told of his efforts to have Stanford White punished by appealing to Anthony Comstock and District Attorney Jerome. He said he had not intended attacking White, that Providence took the matter in hand, and did it in His own way. Thaw also said he had been followed by a gang of thugs whom White had employed to engage him in a street quarrel and kick him to death.

"Mr. Thaw gave me a history of his life," continued the witness. "He said he never got along very well at school."

and once thought of being a painter. In traveling abroad he had met some pretty fast people, but had never been a dissipated man or much in the company of women. He said he rarely, never drank whiskey alone. He always wanted to talk of the wrongs he saw.

(Continued on Second Page.)